॥ श्री सुब्रह्मण्य भुजाधम् ॥
Sri Subrahmanya Bhujangam is a stotra composed by Sri Adi Sankaraacharya at Thiruchendur (presently located in Tamil Nadu, India). When Sri Sankara meditated upon Sri Subrahmanya at this temple, he became aware of the self luminous light shining in his heart and words came out his mouth extemporaneously in the bhujanga metre. It is also said that Achaarya then actually saw the Adisesha worshipping the Lord and hence, adopted the bhujanga metre.

Major portion of the translation provided here is adopted from the following book:

Invocation of Sri Vighneshvara

Though he always sports the appearance of a child, he can crumble the mountains of obstacles. Though he is elephant--faced, he is honored even by his five--faced father Shiva (sadyaojaatam, vaamadevam, aghoram, tatpurushham and ishaanam). Lord Brahma, Indra and the other Devas seek him to fulfill their aspirations. He is known as Ganesha and he is endowed with boundless glory. May he bless me with wealth!

Acharya's Humility

I know not the science of musical sounds, I know not the meanings of complex texts either, I know not the nature of shlokas made of four types of padaas, and nor do I know the intricacies of the Gadyam style! But in my heart, shines a effulgent light with luminous six faces, and because of that from my mouth, amazing phrases with musical tone and meanings pour out in extempore.
This shloka brings out the humility of the acharya, who is considered as the greatest jnani, poet, and yogi ever walked on the face of this earth. Meditating on the verse will bring wisdom to the aspirant.

Lord as the Goal of Vedas

मयूराधिरूढः महावाक्यगूढः

मनोहारिदेहं महंदितिगहम् ।

महीदेवदेवं महावेदभावं

महादेवालं भजे लोकपालम् ॥ ३ ॥

According some traditions it is said that when Sri Sankara sang this verse Lord Subrahmanya gave him darshan.

O Son of Mahadeva! Seated on the peacock chariot, being the essence of the great mahaa vaakyas, having wonderfully attractive body, dwelling in the heart of great sages, O the quintessence of four vedas! Thou are indeed the Lord of the Universe.

Reason for Residing on the Sea Shore

यदा सनिधानं गता मानवा में

भवम्भोधिपारं गतास्ते तदेव ।

इति व्यञ्जनसन्धुतीरे य आस्ते

तमीडे पवित्रं परशुक्पुत्रम् ॥ ४ ॥

O Lord Subrahmanya! son of spotless paraashakti [the Mother of the Cosmos], Thou have taken the your abode near the sea shore (Thiruchendur is a coastal town) as if it is indication that whenever the devotees take refuge in Thee, they can easily cross the ocean of samsara (the eternal cycle of life and death) and reach the other side of the shore safely!

Destroyer of Devotee's Difficulties

यथाव्यथेस्तरं तथं यति तुज्ञा

स्तथेवापदः सन्निधो सेवतां में ।
The waves of worries that haunt the minds of the devotees get destroyed like the waves of the ocean that hit the shore, Thou stands on the sea-side town of Thiruchendur exemplifying this truth that the mental worry-waves get destroyed when the devotees surrender themselves at Thy feet. O Lord Guha (one who resides in the cave of the heart), I meditate on you always!

Glory of Sugandha Hill

O Lord Shanmukha! Thou stands on the top of the Sugandha hill, proclaiming that whenever the devotees climb this hill it will give the same benefit as climbing the king of mountains (Kailas)! May the six-faced lord on the Sugandha hills remain there to bless me!

Glory of Lord Guha

On the shores of the great ocean which steals away the sins of the devotees, stands the Sugandha hills, the most favourable site for the sages to perform their penance! Thou resides there to destroy the worries of the devotees! O self-luminous Lord who is present in the cave of the heart! I adore Thee!
Description of Lord's bed room

Thou art the answer to every desire of the heart and Thou fulfils the righteous desires of Thy devotees! Thou art the lord of devas and son of the lord of the universe! O Kartikeyaa I meditate on Thee!

Meditation on Lord's feet

Let the mind (like a bee) which is burdened with domestic troubles become happy by hovering around Thy lotus feet which is adorned with the jingling ringlets made of rings and beads, red in color indicating the grace, filled with the nectar of beauty and attracts the minds of the devotees.

Meditation on Twelve Arms

 вишё кусаданн схалилакштападан
O Shanmukha! Thy arms punished Brahma, Thy arms governs the world as Thy play, Thy arms killed Soorapadma and other demons who are enemies of Indra, Thy arms are matchless in protecting the Universe, and Thy arms are a terror to Thine enemies. I worship Thy twelve arms which does all these things effortlessly.

What can I compare to Thy six faces! If there be six full moons free from blemishes and if those moons be ever shining on all sides, even then they would be no match to your effulgent faces.

Meditation on Lord’s Twelve Eyes

O Son of Parameshwara! O Merciful Lord! When Thou hast twelve broad long eyes extending upto ears, what will Thou loose by casting that side glance for a moment (on me)?

Meditation on Lord’s Six Heads

O Son of Parameshwara! I see Thy six lotus smiling faces shining like a group of swans, having gleaming side glance ever moving like a row of bees and with red lips overflowing with nectar.
O Lord of the Universe! I offer my prostration to Thy six heads wearing crowns with brilliant rubies which protect the welfare of creatures, which were smelt by Parameshwara with joy uttering six times the mantra "Child Thou were born of me, May Thou live long."

Meditation on Lord Balasubrahmanya

When Lord Shankara called Thee affectionately with arms extended, Thou hurriedly rose from Mother's lap and rushed into Shankara's arms who embraced thee affectionately. I meditate on such a Lord Kumara.
